OSSAMA ABDEL RAHMAN

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Product Management Certification

Individuals possessing this Specialization Certificate have showcased their proficiency in Product Management, aligning with the standards expected for an entry-level Product Manager position. Certificate holders excel in navigating the development and execution of product strategy, cultivating effective collaboration with stakeholders to transform organizational practices through impactful product solutions. Through engaging in hands-on projects, certificate holders have demonstrated their competence in guiding the development process, conducting analysis, testing, and ensuring the successful launch of a product. They have also demonstrated their competency in product management principles by completing a simulated Product Manager certification exam.

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses. Participation in this online specialization does not constitute enrollment at this university. This certificate does not confer a University grade, course credit or degree, and it does not verify the identity of the learner.
